Metropolitan Trust Company of the City of New York George C. Van Tuyl Jr., President 49 Wall Street

Vacant Plot in Park Avenue and a Fifth Avenue Building Among the Offerings.

An unusually large number of parcels will be offered in the salerooms this week. Much interest centers in the sale of the holdings of Adolph Mandel to be held in the Vesey st. room to-morrow.

The sale has been ordered by the creditors' committee, and the State Banking Department and William

Allen, referee in bankruptcy, in order to liquidate the holdings, and in this manner materially assist the vast number of depositors who are suffering through the failure of the Mandel banking interests.

Among the other parcels to be disposed of is a large vacant plot in the southeast corner of Park av. and 55th st., and a five story building at 326 Fifth av. A number of properties will also be offered to settle the affairs of various estates.

PUZZLED OVER FRUIT STANDS. Commissioner Asks Committee to Help Him Determine Policy.

Commissioner Bell of the License Bureau has appointed a committee, of which Victor Richter is chairman, to cooperate with him in determining the policy to be pursued toward 10,000 stooping stands in the city.

The majority of which are selling tobacco and candy in violation of the law. Mr. Richter has also asked the committee to report on the ground that to rigidly compel the stand keepers to live up to the law would bring distress and probably starvation to many of the poor.

The Commissioner feels that he must enforce the law as it stands on the books or that the law must be changed to meet existing conditions.
